STATE GUARD POET LAUREATE.

"Governor Willson today appointed W. J. Lampton, of Winchester, a poet and writer for the New York World, a member of his executive staff with the rank of Colonel. Lampton will become the poet laureate of the State Guard."

The above paragraph appeared in a dispatch from Frankfort to the Cincinnati Enquirer, of Thursday, and we hasten to congratulate Mr. Lampton upon his promotion. We long ago gave him the title of Colonel, and in sending him THE HERALD each week have prefaced his name with the title created by us. Now, however, that Governor Willson has given him a place upon his staff with the title of Colonel, we feel that his title is by no means an empty honor, and as poet laureate of the Kentucky State Guard Col. Lampton will sing peans of praise to the patriotism of Kentucky's proud sons until his name will be a household word in every loyal family in the proud old Commonwealth of the "dark and bloody ground." Long since the editor of this paper was cognizant of the fact that Col. Lampton was entitled to something better than plain Mister. His manly defence of virtue in both his poetry and prose entitles him to high honors as a chivalric gallant and reminds one of the days "When Knighthood was in flower." Were this in the same era he would go forth as an Ivanhoe and unsheathe his sword in defense of maiden and matron. The honor conferred upon him was indeed worthily bestowed and he will grace a colonel's uniform as becomingly as a diadem does the brow of the fairest damsel. Hurrah for Col. Lampton, and as aid to Governor Willson may he win a laurel wreath that will be the pride of every true Kentuckian, be he the choicest of her chivalric sons or the most modest maid of the mountains. Bill Lampton is deserving of a share of all the good things going and not one among his army of admirers is more ready to do him honor or homage than is his humble servant who pens these lines. Speaking of lines, may Col. Lampton's ever fall in pleasant places and his pathway be strewn with fairest roses. Our congratulations also go out to Governor Willson for the acumen he displayed in choosing so admirable an aid.

A laurel wreath he justly wears,
The best within the land,
Won by his gifted mind so bright,
And pen at his command.
Here's three good hearty cheers for him,
And up to life's last days,
We'll prize this man amongst the men,
With honor, love and praise.

W. J. Lampton Has Been Promoted.

A telegram from Frankfort states that our newly found friend, W. J. Lampton, the noted poet and magazine writer of New York, has been commissioned as a full fledged Kentucky Colonel, having thus attained to the most highly cherished ambition of his life, and it is now presumed that "Colonel Lampton" is ready to say:

"Now lettes thou thy servant depart, etcetra."

It is said to have come about in this way: Mr. Lampton (now Colonel Lampton) being unable to further conceal his aspirations, wrote to a friend in Frankfort, telling him of his cherished ambition, whereupon the said friend let the information leak and in some way Governor Willson caught it, and knowing that there might be a thousand or two regiments of Kentucky troops over in New York that would be entirely useless in case of an emergency call, for lack of a commander, he hastened to forward a commission to Mr. Lampton (again we should say Colonel), who will at once proceed to equip himself with sword, uniform, camp chest, folding knife and fork and other paraphernalia and equipments becoming a soldier of his rank.

Here's to you, Colonel Lampton, and may every drop of that real red Kentucky blood that you may spill on the field be given credit in the enrichment of the annals of the great commonwealth which gave birth to yourself and your ancestors.

Anent the above announcement of Mr. Lampton's promotion, the Louisville Times ground out the following.

"With buttons, bandolier and braid,
Lampton is now a Colonel, made;
Willson soon in matchless verses
May solace find from jeers and curses."

NICK.

A Modern Version.

Simple Simon met a pieman,
Going to the fair,
Said Simple Simon to the pieman,
"Let me taste your ware."
Said the pieman to Simple Simon:
"Young man, my ancestors were the hardy spirits who first blazed
the trail through the pathless forest and founded the pioneer settlement in the region which is now Missouri. I myself hail from that glorious Commonwealth, and before I can be induced to part with one of the succulent gobs of pastry which I am vending, I must be shown your penny."
Said Simple Simon to the pieman,
"Indeed, I haven't any."

While playing policeman a fourteen-year-old Newport boy was running backward and struck a tree with such force as to render him unconscious. His condition is serious.

A ferocious bulldog attacked a horse in Maysville and a genuine equine canine battle ensued. The horse was fearfully lascerated and is in a serious condition. The dog was killed.

Wilson Heath, aged 20 years, died at his home, in Pulaski county, from the effects of injuries received by being struck in the stomach by a piece of timber he was guiding through a saw.

Natural gas was found at a depth of 190 feet on the farm of Joe L. Bailey, about eleven miles from Georgetown, in Scott county. Temporary pipes have been laid and he is using it for light and fuel.

About 3,500 women in the employ of the American Tobacco Co., in Louisville, struck for better pay and more sanitary conditions. The outcome may be the closing down of their three factories in that city.

Garrett Woods, aged 65 years, a Garrard county farmer, was attacked by a vicious steer Sunday morning and gored to death before help could reach him. His two little girls were with him and raised the alarm.

Because his mother, who is an inmate of the Eastern Kentucky Insane asylum, failed to recognize her son, who had come from High Bridge to visit her, he lost his mind and is now an inmate of the same institution.

The grand jury of Lee county, which adjourned Saturday evening, returned 160 indictments, ten of which are against the L. & N. railroad company for shipping liquor into local option territory, and eight for the illegal sale of liquor.

John Powell and Cornelius Hickman, negroes in the Georgetown jail, trapped Jailer Lusby Sunday night and escaped from jail. Hickman was soon recaptured, but Powell, who was under eight years' sentence for car breaking, made his escape.

Disagreement of the jury in Greenup Circuit court has resulted from the trial of Mrs. Sarah H. Higgins, who was charged with having hired Fred Ferguson to assassinate William Culbertson, C. & O. railroad agent at South Portsmouth last July.

Allen county was last week visited by one of the most destructive forest fires in its history. Hundreds of men fought the fire until they fell from exhaustion, and many thousands of dollars' worth of timber, fences and outbuildings were destroyed. Luckily no lives were lost.

Persons traveling on railroads in Kentucky desiring to take a nip out or a bottle had better be careful. The governor has signed the bill making it a fine of from $10 to $20 for each offense, and confers upon conductors power to make arrests and turn the offender over to the authorities at the first stop.

The coroner of Laurel county is investigating a strange tragedy at Lily, where the bodies of John W. Egner and his nine-year-old son, of Corbin, were found under the L. & N. railroad bridge. Egner, it is alleged, was hunting for his wife, who had recently deserted him. The authorities suspect that the father pushed the son off the bridge and then committed suicide, as their bodies were not badly disfigured.

Louisville dispatches of March 31, by the Associated Press, say: "The fact of the recent withdrawal of the reward offered by the state for the arrest and conviction of the kidnapers of Alma Kelner, who disappeared from Louisville several months ago, is coupled in police circles here with that of the absence from this city since Saturday of Frank Fehr, uncle of the child, to give color to the rumor that details of Alma's restoration are now being arranged.

The Hazel Green Cemetery Association meets this afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. O. Carter. The ladies are indefatigable in their efforts to improve our city of the dead, and every week finds them doing something to beautify the grounds. This week they had the trees trimmed, Mr. Bohanan doing the work.

VASHTI INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL,
Thomasville, Ga.,
March 19, 1910.

Dear Mr. Cooper: I never intended to wait so long to send my $1.00, but just let the time pass—it passes so swiftly, too.

We are having fine weather now, but the winter was unusually cold for South Georgia.

Our school work, too, is going on nicely, and we enjoy the work very much. I have often tho't of writing you fully of our work here, but can never find time, it seems, to do it.

I would so much like to see all my Hazel Green friends, as well as those of Morgan county and others scattered over "My Old Kentucky Home."

Remember me kindly to Mrs. Cooper. Very respectfully,

MRS. MATTIE O. BISHOP.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, brick-dust or sediment in the urine, head ache, back ache, lame back, dizziness, sleeplessness, nervousness, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and better health in that organ is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. Swamp-Root corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. A trial will convince anyone.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, and don't let a dealer sell you something in place of Swamp-Root—if you do you will be disappointed.

DEMPSEY.

Wolfe County Medical Society.

The Wolfe county medical society met Saturday, April 2, at the Day House, in Hazel Green, and was called to order by the president, Dr. A. C. Nickell. The secretary being absent, Dr. C. Hood Williams was chosen secretary pro tem. Other members present were Drs. W. P. Wise and J. H. Dunn, of Lee City, and Dr. Taylor Center, of Hazel Green.

Dr. Dunn read an excellent paper on typhoid fever, which was freely discussed by the members present, when the subject turned to pneumonia and was picked for all there was in it, some very fine points being brought out.

The next meeting will be held in Lee City, the first Saturday in May, when papers will be read by Dr. Carroll on dysentery; Dr. Taylor Center on cholera infantum; Dr. Dunn on treatment of typhoid fever; Dr. Wise on summer diarrhoea.

The meeting then adjourned.

Breeders of Swine,

and especially those farmers who desire to raise hogs that are easily and cheaply grown, should read the advertisement of Patton's Model, No. 27567, registered Duroc-Jersey Boar, and all farmers who attend the horse show here Saturday, the 9th inst., should avail of the occasion to see this animal. It will well pay any farmer to breed this class of hogs as it takes less to keep them, less to fatten them, and they are also almost immune from diseases prevalent in the swine breed. See this fine specimen Saturday and make up your mind to take your sows to him.

Equally Successful.

Dr. W P. Wise, of Lee City, attended the district meeting of the physicians at this place Saturday, and asked in regard to the smallpox at that place, he stated that all the patients were cured and had been discharged. When asked if he had any of the patients in charge, he replied: "Yes, I doctored the wife of John Dennis, one of the Saints, but he refused to take medicine. Thus the Lord had one in charge and I the other, and the Lord was about as successful with His case as I was with mine."

Ely Kash, who was employed as cashier of a bank at Goldenrod, a small town in Texas, resigned his position a few weeks ago, and is now visiting his brother, Postmaster Sam. Meantime he is anticipating and awaiting a job as cashier of a bank in North Carolina. We are not authorized as a bonded company, but we will go bond to any bank that employs him that we will cover the loss.

Loveland, Ohio, April 3, '10.

Capt. Cooper—Dear Sir: Will you kindly change my paper to Loveland, Ohio, R. R. No. 3. I am at Schuler's. I get possession of the place that I bought tomorrow. This is the greatest country in the United States for the price. Don't all come at once Yours truly,
J. S. RITTENHOUSE.

P. S. John Schuler encloses $1 for renewal purposes for paper.

Everett Back, the gentlemanly conductor on the Ohio and Kentucky passenger train, was here Friday to see his little daughter, Hallie Day, and incidentally to secure excursionists to Niagara Falls some time in the early fall. He visited Campton to see how many would go from there and upon his return here he took his little daughter home with him.

Jordan Wills, whose illness has several times been mentioned in our paper, is now very emaciated and frail, and his age, which is close to four score, militates against his mending materially. He enjoys the company of his friends who call to see him, and as he is confined to his bed their visits solace him.

Roger Bryan, of Bryan, Goodwin & Hunt, and W. J. Davis, of Danville, representing the Gravely Tobacco Co, were here Tuesday in the interest of their respective firms.

IN MEMORY OF

MATTIE LEE ROSE, daughter of Joseph P. and Nannie Rose, who entered the pearly gates, March 16, 1910, aged 19 years and 8 months.

Mattie Lee Rose, a mountain pride,
A soul we loved so well,
Has left this weary world of ours,
To where the angels dwell.
She's with her sister now in Heaven,
Who met her on the shore
And wafted her to a fairer land,
Which shines forevermore.

And as she neared the pearly gate,
For her 'twas opened wide,
Sweet songs were sung by those within,
For this dear mountain pride.
And then the angels brought a robe,
So spotless, pure and white,
And in a moment she became
A form of heavenly light.

How grand to think that Heaven was made
For such as her alone,
A place where all the good can dwell,
Where suffering is unknown.
Weep not, dear parents, at this change,
Which God to her hath given,
Although she was so pure on earth,
She's purer now in heaven.

The Kentucky Arbor and Bird Day for 1910 book is a neatly gotten up affair and contains much interesting matter relative to the occasion. It is compiled by Jennie Graff Crabbe, and issued under the auspices of J. G. Crabbe, state superintendent, to whom we are indebted for a copy.

The news comes to us that Mrs. Elizabeth Cox, relict of James Cox, died at Carl Junction, Mo., March 23, 1910, aged 81. The decedent was a sister-in-law of Mrs. Lou Day, of our town, and Mrs. Ellen Pieratt, of Madison county. She was a sister of the mother of our fellow countyman, Hon. Jos. P. Rose.

Cashier Patton made a flying trip to Frankfort Monday, returning Wednesday, and brought with him Johnny Patton, the son of his brother, who died about three weeks ago. The decedent requested his brother, our Mr. Patton, to take his boy and raise him, and this is in accordance with his wish s

Woman's Beauty

Some women retain their beauty to an advanced age. But women, who regularly endure pain, age rapidly, for suffering leaves its lasting marks on them.

Nearly all women suffer more or less with some form of female trouble. It should not be neglected. Avoid the pain—treat yourself at home by taking Cardui, as thousands of other women have done. Begin at once and give Cardui a fair trial.

TAKE CARDUI

J 36

It Will Help You

Mrs. Katie Burlison, Goreville, Ill., tried Cardui and writes: "I suffered with female troubles, and was so sick I could not stand on my feet. Finally I began to take Cardui, and soon began to mend. Now I am able to do all my housework and am in much better health than I was before." Try it.

Well Furnished and Well Ventilated Rooms.

We desire to call your attention to our Sanitarium treatment for the cure of Whiskey, Morphine, Opium, Cocaine and all drug habits. We send out no "Home Cures." None of them are a success. Every one must come to our Sanitarium, where we are specially prepared to handle this class of diseases, and where we guarantee a perfect cure in every case within ten days to two weeks for the liquor habit, and for the drug habit two to three weeks.

Our treatment is painless and harmless. We do not care how much you use, or how long, or from what cause, we can cure you to stay cured.

HERE IS OUR UNPARALLELED PROPOSITION: We will take any case of Drug or Liquor addiction, cure them, bear all expenses while the patient is here, such as treatment, board, room and attendant, and not exact one cent compensation until the patient is cured and ready to return home.

We do not send our patients home a physical wreck, with a so-called tonic to build them up. When you leave our Sanitarium you know you are cured, for you are perfectly free from all craving or desire for either drug or liquor. You are eating and sleeping well and taking no medicine home whatever. Our patients gain flesh and strength from the very beginning. If we do not cure you it costs you nothing, so you see you have everything to gain and nothing to lose.

NO CURE, NO PAY.

Our Sanitarium is the finest in the State and ladies need not hesitate about coming to us, as they are attended by a lady nurse, and they will be shown nothing but the most constant and courteous attention.

We refer you to the Farmers National Bank and any business or professional man in our city. Upon application we can place you in correspondence with persons we have cured who will gladly answer any questions.

If you are seeking a cure without suffering, and one that is guaranteed to your entire satisfaction before paying one cent, we will appreciate a letter from you, and we will cheerfully give you any information. If you have any reason to doubt that we can not do what we claim, please write us your reasons and we will explain it to your satisfaction.

If you have a friend needing treatment we would appreciate a letter from you.

Remember our Sanitarium is private and correspondence held confidential.

Write us for terms, stating history of your case as nearly as possible.

Yours very truly,
